

MD ANAESTHESIOLOGY

ASSESSMENT

1. What will be the components of Overall Continuous Assessment of course work?

Component s	Description / Frequency of evaluation
Attendance	Daily with morning meeting.
Presentation s	As per Schedule.
Assignments	As given to candidate from time to time.
Log books	Cases and procedural skills with competency level as in Annexure A
CAT s'	Continuous Assessment test at the end of each semester. There will be seven semester examinations by the department.
Others	Progress and performance assessment from teachers of various disciplines where candidate was rotated.

CATs': Continuous Assessment test

2. What will be the components of CATs including Semester examinations?

Components	Weight age
------------	------------

Written	25 %
MCQ(OB / TF) One best (30)	15 %
Descriptive SEQ (05)	10 %
Viva Two examiners	20 %
LOG BOOK 5 Cases/skill selected and tested	25 %
OSCE Five stations	20 %
Others Paper presentation and participation in tutorials.	10 %

OSCE: Objective Structured Clinical Examination
Passing marks 60 %

3. What will be the criteria for promotion to the higher / next level in the program?

1. CAT and semester examination, Attendance, Log book, participation in tutorials and paper presentation.
2. All mandatory workshop in 1st & 2nd year.
3. Submission / approval of synopsis before the end of 2nd year .
4. Two research paper in 3rd year of training.
5. Passing semester examination each year will enable the candidate to move to next year of training.

4. What will be the eligibility criteria for Final Examination?

Components	Description / Weight age
Attendance	Minimum 80% regular
Semester Examination	Examinations Cleared successfully.
Log book	Satisfactorily filled with required competency. Countersigned by Supervisor every third month.

CATs'	Cleared successfully.
Thesis	Letter of acceptance
Others	Two original papers published.

5. What will be the process of Final Examination?

Components	Weight age	Description
Written	40 %	One paper of 100 MCQ (one best) & One paper 10 SEQ.
Viva/ Long case	20 %	Six examiners
OSCE	40 %	Ten stations
Others		Thesis after successful defense

Passing marks 50% in each component and aggregate 60 %. Part A
Candidate will be declared successful after defense of thesis. Part B

6. How many examiners will evaluate the candidate in Final Examination?

Number	Description
Internal examiners 3	Supervisor, one senior faculty member and Dean of postgraduate
External examiners 3	Senior examiners related to the subject.

7. What will be the criteria for passing the Final Examination?

Weight age	Weight age
Overall Continuous assessment (1st yr 5%, 2nd yr 5% and 3rd yr 10%.	20 %
Final Clinical Examination (part A)	40 %
Thesis with successful defense (part B)	40 %

8. What will be the criteria for successful completion of the program?

- i) Successfully completed the training.
- ii) Passing written and clinical examination
- iii) Two research papers published in PMDC recognized Journal.
- iv) Successful defense of Thesis

MD CRITICAL CARE MEDICINE

ASSESSMENT

1. What will be the components of Overall Continuous Assessment of course work?

Component s	Description / Frequency of evaluation
Attendance	Daily with morning meeting.
Presentation s	As per Schedule.
Assignments	As given to candidate from time to time.
Log books	Cases and procedural skills with competency level as in Annexure A.
CAT s'	Continuous Assessment test at the end of each semester. There will be in all seven semester examinations by the department.
Others	Progress and performance assessment from teachers of various disciplines where candidate was rotated.

CATs': Continuous Assessment test

2. What will be the components of Continuous Assessment Test (CAT) including Semester Examination.

Components	Weight age
Written	25 %
MCQ(OB / TF) One best (30)	15 %
Descriptive SEQ (05)	10 %
Viva Two examiners	20 %
Log Book 5 cases/skill selected from log book	25 %
OSCE Five stations	20 %
Others Paper presentation and participation in tutorials.	10 %

OSCE: Objective Structured Clinical examination
Passing marks 60 %

3. What will be the criteria for promotion to the higher / next level in the program?

1. CAT and Semester examinations, Attendance, Log book, participation in tutorials and paper presentation.
2. All mandatory workshop in 1st & 2nd year.
3. Submission / approval of synopsis before the end of 2nd year .
4. Two research paper in 3rd year of training.
5. Passing both semester examinations each year will enable the candidate to move to next year of training.

4. What will be the eligibility criteria for Final Examination?

Components	Description / Weight age
Attendance	Minimum 80% regular
Semester examination	Examinations Successfully cleared.

Log book	Satisfactory filled with required competency. Countersigned by Supervisor every third month.
CATs'	Satisfactory cleared
Thesis	Letter of acceptance
Others	Two original papers published.

5. What will be the process of Final Examination?

Components	Weight age	Description
Written	40 %	One paper of 100 MCQ (one best) and one paper of 10 SEQ.
Viva and long case	20 %	Six examiners.
OSCE	40 %	Ten stations.
Others		Thesis after successful defense

Passing marks 50 % in each component and aggregate 60 %. Part A Candidate will be declared successful after defense of Thesis. Part B

DIPLOMA IN ANAESTHESIOLOGY

ASSESSMENT

1. What will be the components of Overall Continuous Assessment of course work?

Component s	Description / Frequency of evaluation
Attendance	Daily morning meeting.
Presentation s	As per Schedule.
Assignments	As given to candidate from time to time.
Log books	Cases and procedural skill with competency level.
CAT s'	Continuous Assessment test at the end of each semester. There will be three semester examinations by the department.
Others	Progress and performance assessment from teachers of various disciplines where candidate was rotated.

CATs': Continuous Assessment test

2. What will be the components of CATs including Semester examination ?

Components	Weight age
Each semester	25 %
MCQ (OB / TF) One best (30)	15 %
Descriptive SEQ (05)	10 %
Viva Two examiners	20 %
LOG BOOK 5 cases /skill selected and tested	25 %
OSCE Five stations	20 %
Others Participation in tutorials/ paper presentation	10 %

OSCE: Objective Structured Clinical Examination
Passing marks 60 %

3. What will be the criteria for promotion to the higher / next level in the program?

- i) CAT, semester examination, Attendance, morning meetings, Log book, participation in tutorials and paper presentation.
- ii) All mandatory workshops in 1st year (Annexure B)
- iii) On clearing semester examination the candidate will be promoted to next semester.

4. What will be the eligibility criteria for final Examination?

Components	Description / Weight age
Attendance	Minimum 80% regular
Semester examination	Cleared successfully.
Log book	Satisfactory filled with required competency. Countersigned by Supervisor every third month.
CATs' including Semester	Cleared successfully.

5. What will be the process of Final Examination?

Components	Weight age	Description
Written	40 %	100 MCQ (one best) & 10 SEQ
Viva / Long case	20 %	Four examiners
OSCE	40 %	10 stations

Passing marks 50 % in each component and aggregate 60 %. Part A Candidate will be declared successful after defense of Thesis. Part B